T. DOTAN and B. BRANDL: Deir el-Balah: Excavations in 1977-1982 in the Cemetery and Settlement. Vol. II: The Finds

Vol. II of the final report on the excavations in the cemetery and settlement of Deir el-Balah discusses the finds from the excavations. First comes a typological presentation of the ceramic finds, in which the Late Bronze Age pottery is discussed by category and the ceramic finds of the later periods are presented by stratum. Next various chapters present the other finds. Finally, the site is placed in its context in a historical discussion.
